Foreword

The 1961 HAMPTONIAN, done by a faithful few, is the product of many countless hours. We have endeavored to produce a new and different HAMPTONIAN. Our success can only be measured through your personal interpretation of the ideas we have tried to express.

In this book of memories we have attempted to capture the emotions felt by the members of the Hampton family. We are hoping that all of the things presented here will represent an atmosphere of learning that will inspire our student body to achieve religiously, socially, and intellectually.

Here in our HAMPTONIAN lie the events that are now mere memories, and it is our purpose to preserve them. Our HAMPTONIAN is the only tangible memory we have of this year of laughter, sorrow, and much hard work. Yet, there will be benefits from all of these things.

As time passes, the editors and staff hope you will enjoy recalling memorable events from a year well spent.

President's Message

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

HAMPTON INSTITUTE
HAMPTON, VIRGINIA

November 18, 1960

Dear Students:

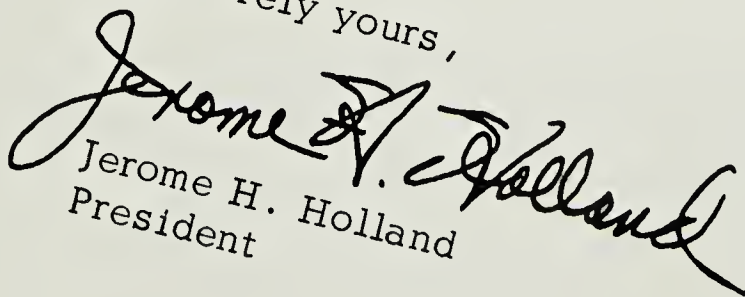

The Hampton Institute Yearbook, "The Hamptonian" for the 1960-61 college year, is a record of the college's program with special reference to student activities. Since this is a student project, "The Hamptonian" plays a very important role in the student development program.

It is an experience in journalism, advertising, salesmanship, finance and business organization on a voluntary basis. Without such experiences, the student development program would be completely inadequate. I want to commend the students of Hampton Institute for undertaking such a worthwhile and challenging project. Special citation must be given to the members of the Yearbook Committee, as they have managed to complete this project while following a rather vigorous student program.

I am very confident of the future of Hampton Institute because this college has a fine student body. I know that the members of the Class of "61" will continue to strive toward higher citizenship goals and objectives as they leave this fine institution. They have a noble heritage which they are expected to enrich and expand.

I have experienced a great deal of satisfaction in working with the students during my first year as President of Hampton Institute. The record of this "Hamptonian" will become a part of the heritage of Hampton Institute.

Sincerely yours,

Jerome H. Holland
President

Dedication

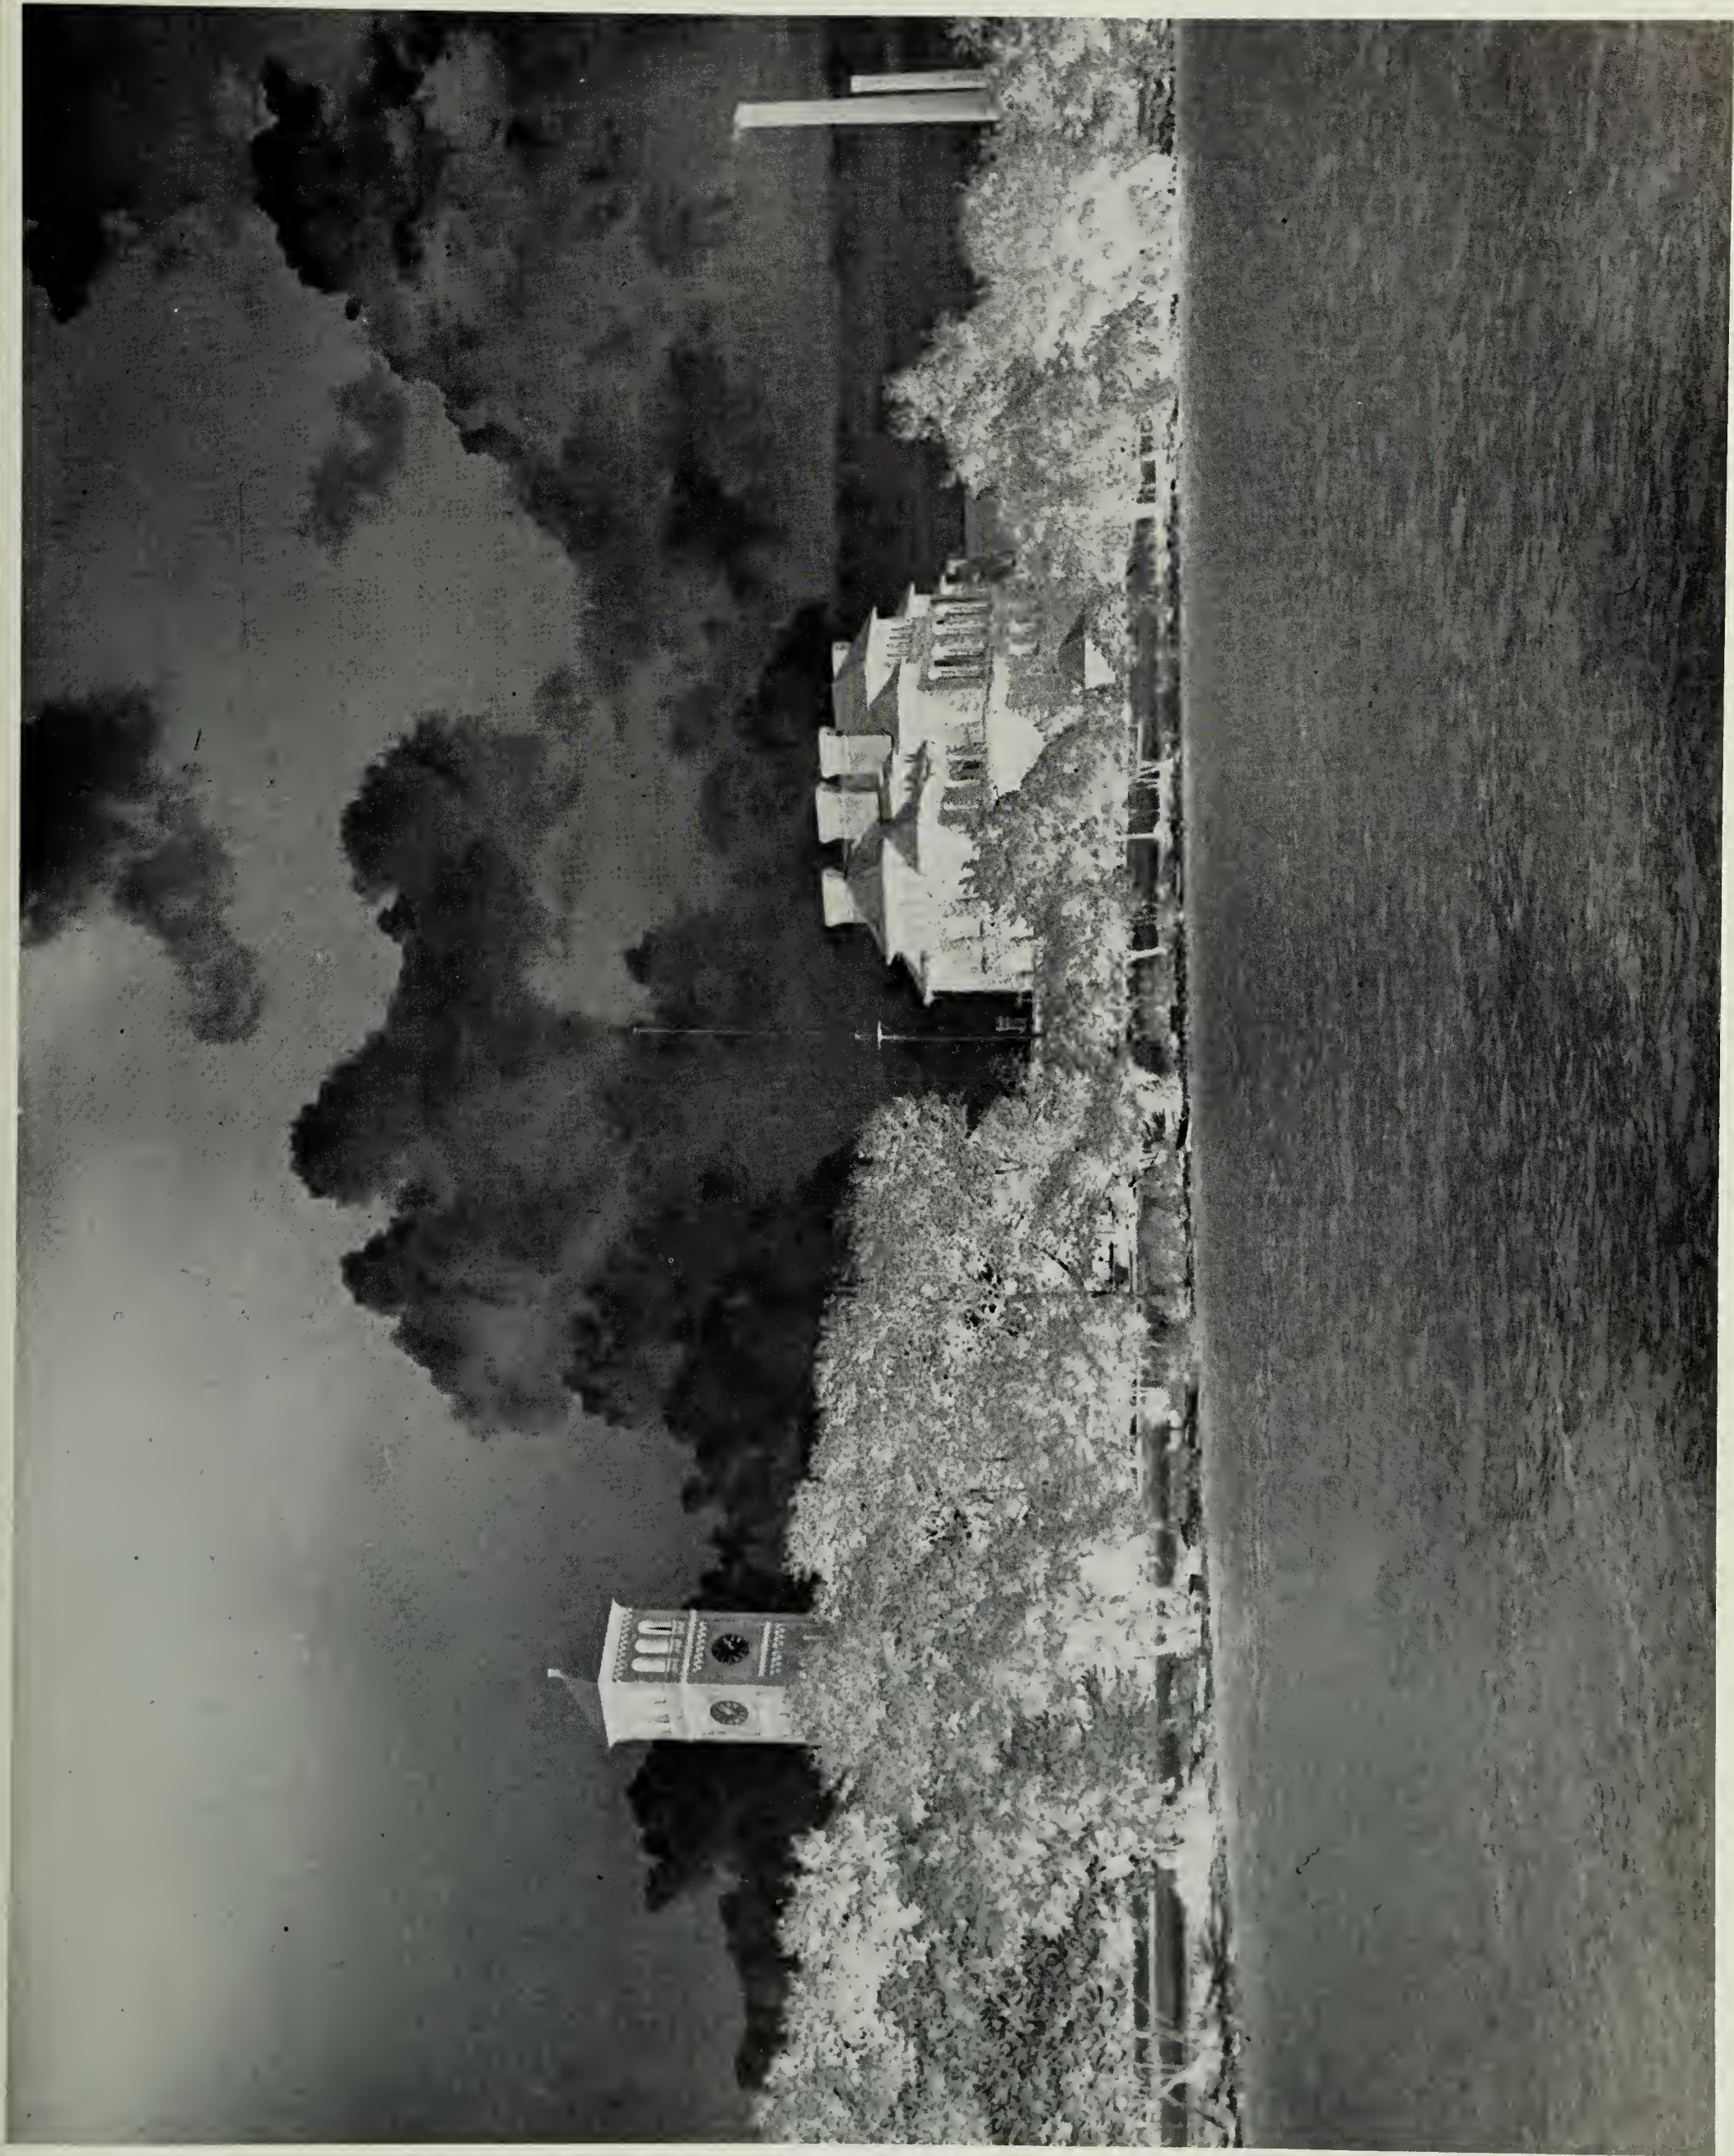

In this time of crisis, there has been no stronger moral or spiritual force than the parents of college youth. Their infinite wisdom, patience and love has been a nucleus around which revolves the aspirations of human kind. The “continuum” that bonds parents in a unique and enobling fraternity has been a source of inspiration and, indeed, life for every college student.

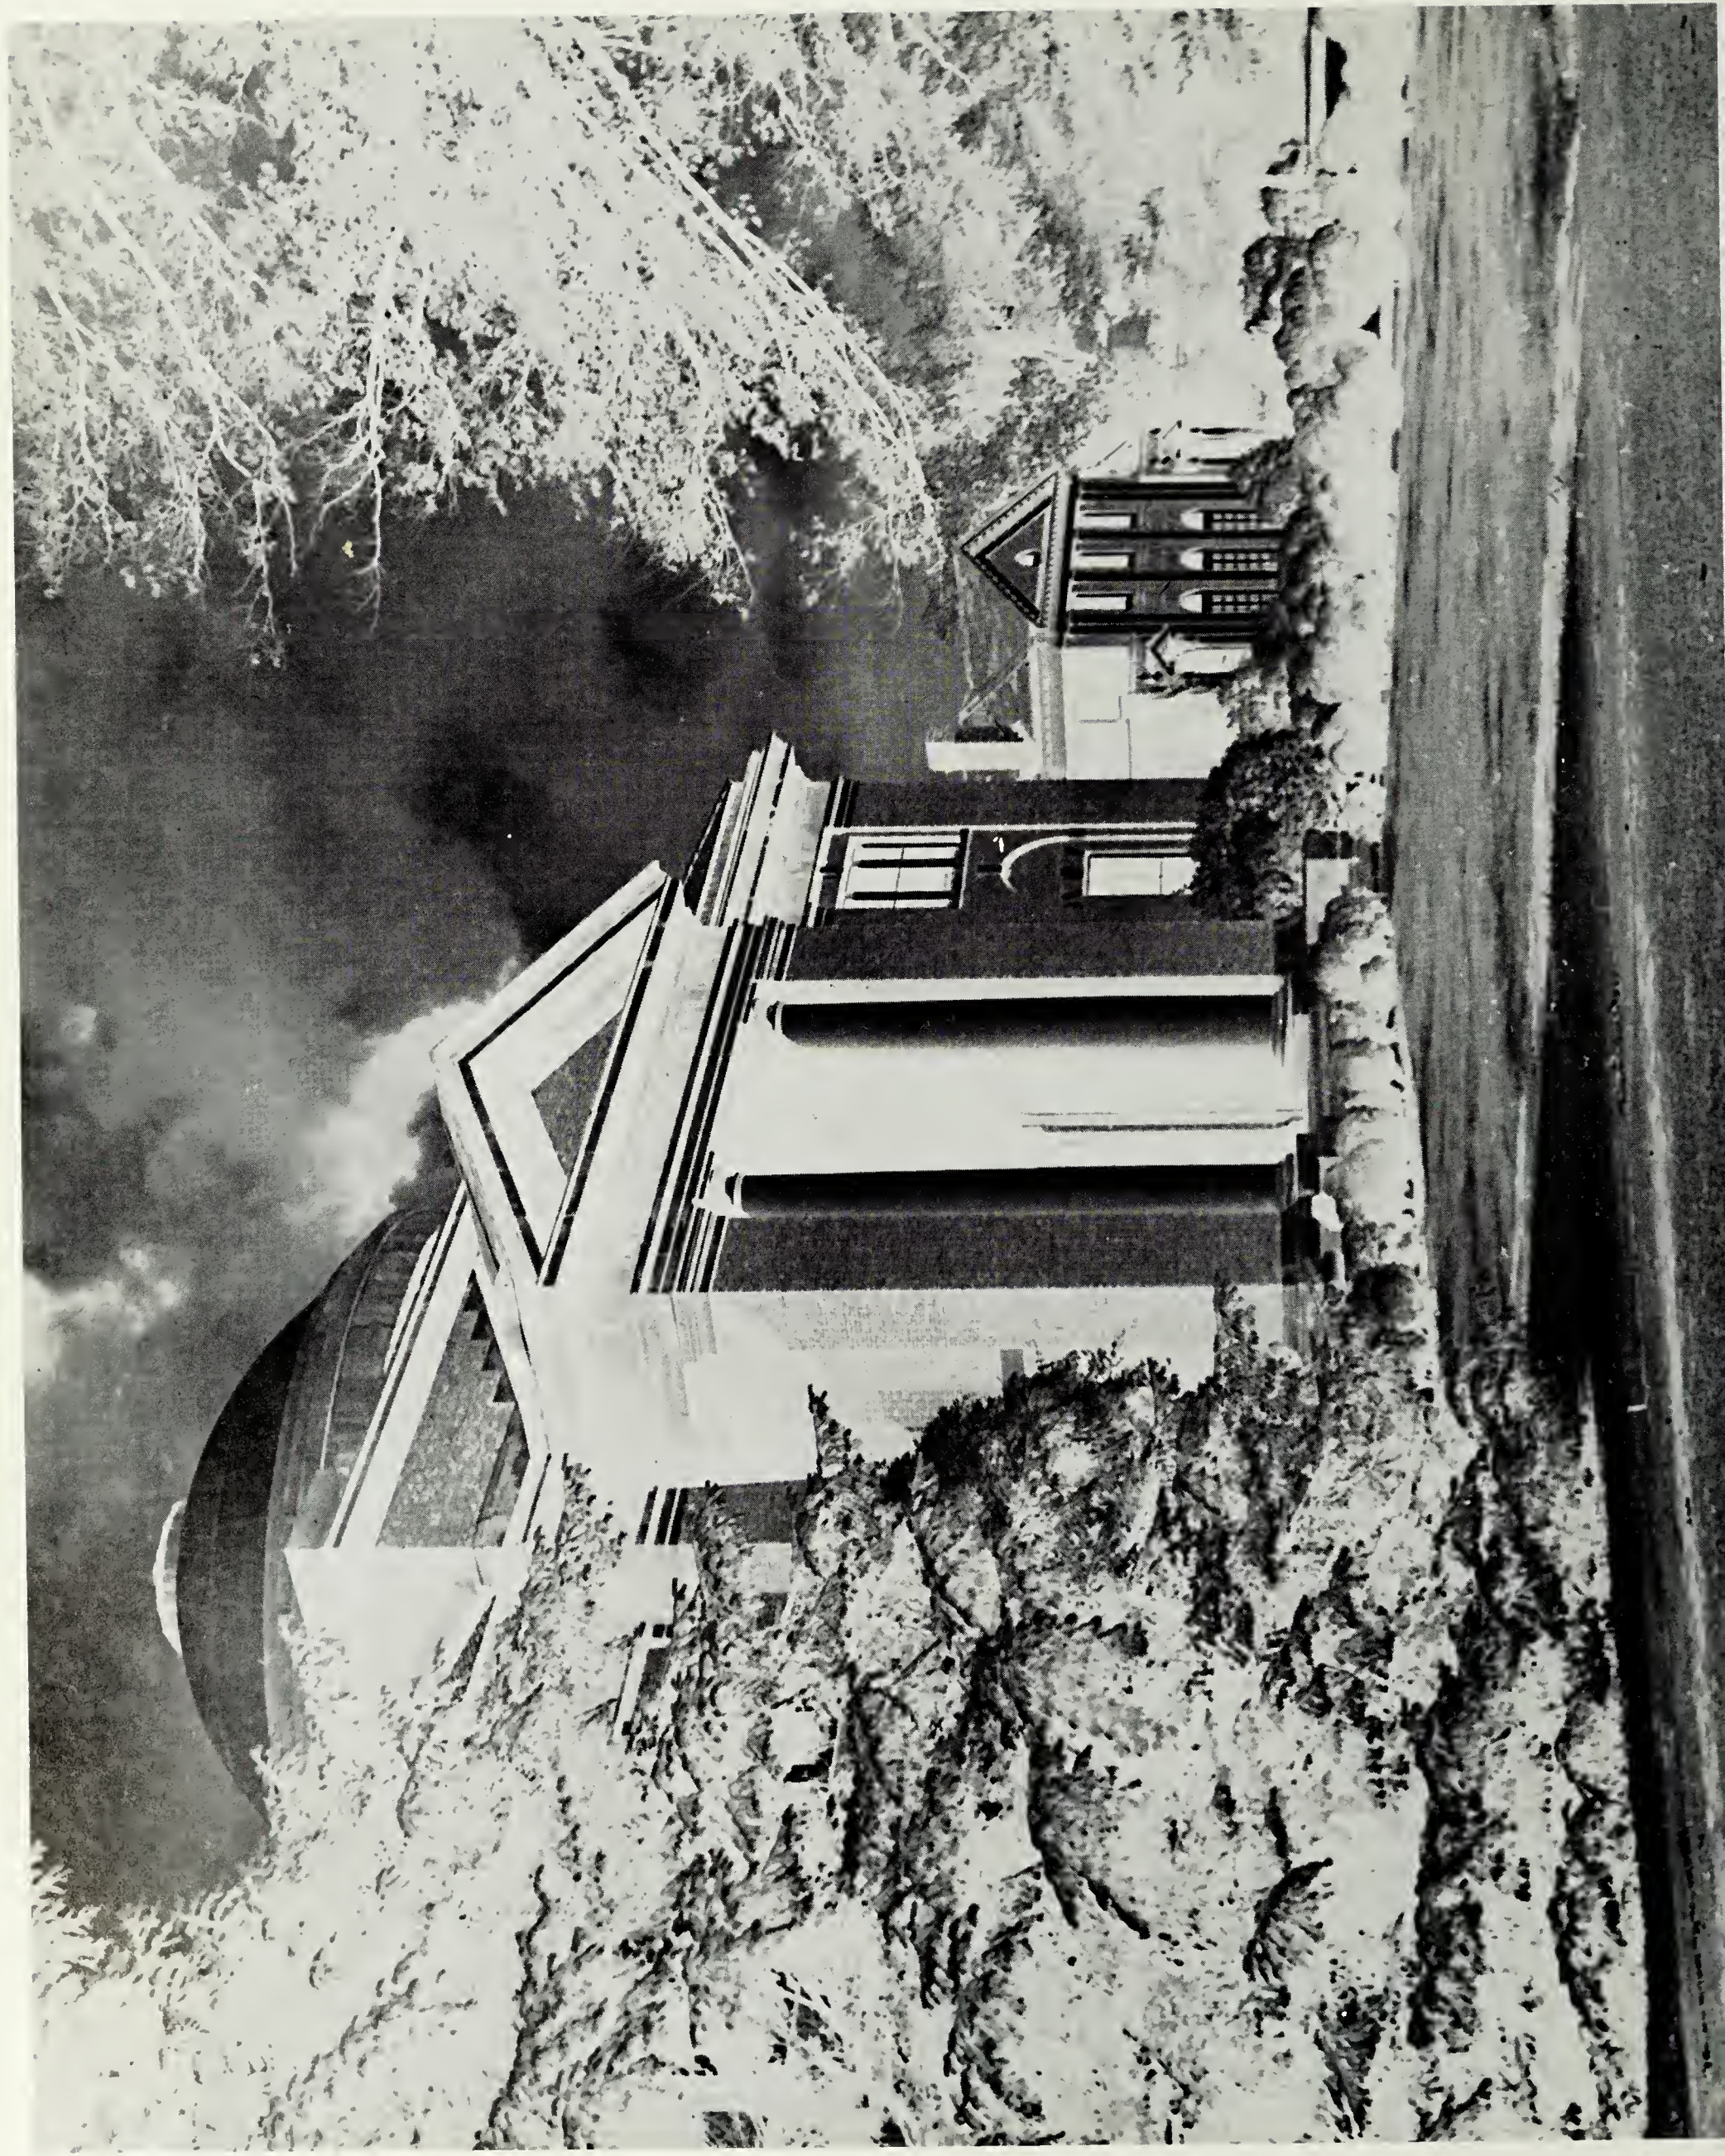

It is with deep respect and honor that the class of 1961 dedicates this Hamptonian to the Parents of Hampton Institute Students.

Redding Reelected To Scholar Board

J. Saunders Redding, the James Weldon Johnson professor of creative writing on campus, has been re-elected for his fourth term as a member of the editorial board of The American Scholar, it was announced last week. Other members also re-elected to the board are Jacques Barzun, Loren Eiseley and Richard Rovere.

A graduate of Brown University where he received the Ph.D. and M.A., Redding gained prominence after winning the 1944 North Carolina Mayflower Society Award.

Miss Norma Odom, Editor, discusses correspondence with the advisors Misses Jackson and Rucker. Miss Odom is a native of Smithfield, Virginia.

Pirates Whip N. C. 71-60 As Ward, Sn

The Pirates hosted North Carolina College on Monday, December 5. A fine team effort bolted the Pirates into the winning column with a 71-60 victory. It was the explosiveness of forward Carlton Smith that showed the way as he dropped 6 of the first 7 baskets. Although Smith was set for a scoring rampage, he accumulated fouls that forced him to the bench, leaving him 14 points at half time.

Students Choose Kennedy Over Nixon In Social Science Club Mock Election

The Social Science Club held a mock presidential election Saturday, October 29, in which the students of Hampton Institute voted for the candidate they wish to be their next President.

Seventy-four percent of the student body voting chose John Kennedy, with Nixon running second, and write-in votes for Dobbs and Byrd. Vice-President write-ins included Weiss, Goldwater and Rockefeller, while Lyndon Johnson

Pirate Cage Team Loses To VA. Union, 72-65

The Hampton Institute Pirates opened their current cage season on December 2 with a potentially impressive team losing to a strong Virginia Union team 72-65 at Va. Union in Richmond.

Mistakes marred the Pirates' intentions as the Panthers outscored and outrebounded their visitors at the onset of the game. The return of Eddie Simmons to the Panther lineup was more than emphasized as he combined his floor tactics with the scoring of Bruce Sprague.

Lucy Thornton On TV College Panel

Miss Lucy Thornton, a senior history major here at Hampton, was one of a five-member panel who interviewed U. S. Senator Jacob K. Javits on the weekly TV program "College News Conference" on Sunday, October 30.

Other panelists were students from New York University Law School, Columbia University Law School, Pratt Institute and Union Theological Seminary. Ruth Hagyard acted as moderator.

HISTORY

The Olympic Social Club was originally founded as the Chesterfield Smokers Club in 1914. Five years later the name was changed to the present name. Around campus the members are known as "Pics" and can always be recognized by their black sweaters and orange and black shields.

Although the "Pics" live by three principles; Obedience, Scholarship, Cooperation, they find time to be all-around men and very regular guys.

Good joke

Olé!!

Treat, anyone?

"The Wonderful Wizard of Oz."

A Bird's Paradise

If you drop me, I'll . . .

Let me see.

What's going on?

You wouldn't dare!!

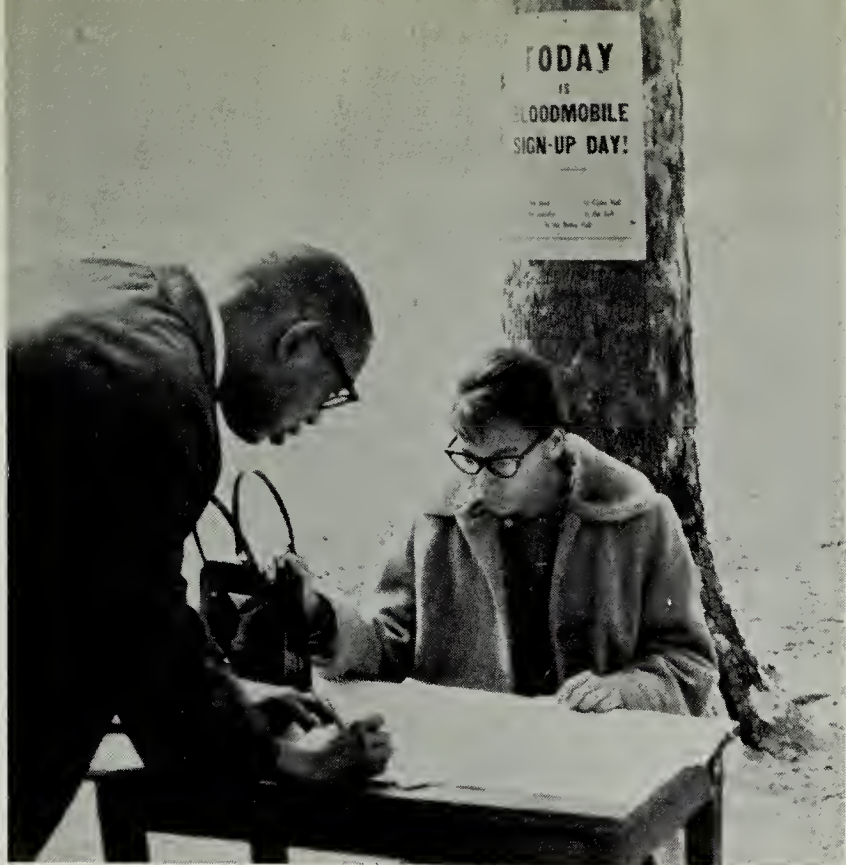

Would you?

They study

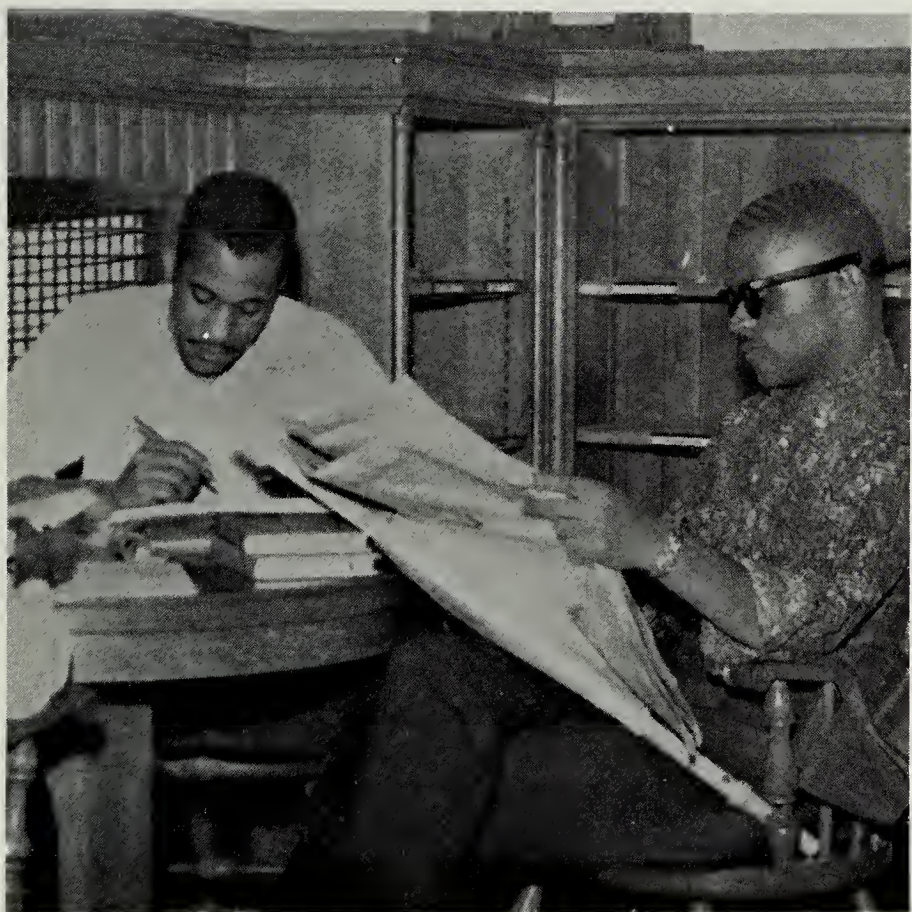

They play

Blood, anyone?

A swinging session!

Fronting . . .

A way out dance

Ain't she sweet?

Blow, man, blow!!

"Oh Hampton, a Thought Sent From Heaven Above"

Same old sign, same old place, same old chicken.

Cheese

SO!!!

Memories are made of this.

Don't be fooled; this is not Miami Beach.

Just taking a stroll.

Yes, we're probates of S and B. Can't you tell.

We don't have long now.

No! It's not real.
